CLEVELAND, O., July 4.—The chances are that Cleveland is no longer a factor in the pennant race, not unless a good third baseman can be secured. In sliding to second this morning, Tebeau was unitentionally spiked by a Brooklyn player, and the spike caught in his knee, throwing it around and out of the latest the well not play again this season, and may be permanently injured. Cleveland had a good lead, but the team seemed to lose heart when Tebeau was hurt, and from that time on the ball was hit hard by the Brooklyns. Philadelphia, 15: Cincinnati, 14. CINCINNATI, O., July 4.—The Reds lost this morning's game by the narrow margin of one run in a very heavy slugging game. Each side used two pitchers in the game. Chamberlain and Keefe wars knocked out of the box in the third ning, and their places were taken by wysr and Sharott respectively. The atfielding of Ward was something awful. He alone was responsible for about half the runs scored by the visitors. The game was very exciting. Attendance, 7,187. The score: Cincianatis ...... 3 0 5 1 0 2 0 3 0-14 11

BT. LOUIS, July 4.—This afternoon's game was a battle of pitchers, but the Browns' luck came back to them. New York scored in the third inning on Lyons' single, a stolen base, Kelley's sacrifice and a base hit by Doyle. The Browns could get no further than third until the eighth, but batted out victory in the ninth with a crack to left. Shugart followed with a single, and Peitz drove a two-bagger into centre, scoring them both. Score:

Augusta has been leading from the beginning, with the exception of a short intermission, but Charleston very close behind, and losing one game by Augusta would have brought Charleston here to decide the pennant. But Augusta won both games, amid the greatest enthusiasm and firing of crackers on the grounds. The first game was too one-sided to be very interesting, but the second was sharp and close for several innings and excitement intense. There is great rejoicing to-night over the victory.

Who don arose the vast crowd arose with him and crowded forward. When they caught sight of his battle-scarred face another rousing Rebel yell rent the air.

His speech was impressive, and was an appeal for patriotism as an incentive for future duty. He availed himself of this as probably his last opportunity to appeal to his old comrades in behalf of their country and its institutions, as second only to their duty to their God and the Church. He recalled many of the most conspicuous incidents of the war, and pictured them with a vividness and a pathos that touched his hearers. Willed the Kind Stranger a Farm.

A Muncie (Ind.) dispatch says: S. H. Nafe, a salesman for a Chicago house, who formerly lived in Frankfort, is in this city and reports a recent kind act which has been very liberally rewarded. During the National Dunkard rewarded. During the National Dunkard meeting here, among those in attendance were Abner Fuller and wife, a feebie old couple of Amboy, O. One day Mr. Fuller became separated from his wife and friends, and taking the wrong train he found himself without money or ticket. He was greatly embarrassed by the conductor demanding a ticket. In his extremity he fell under the eyes of Mr. Nafe, who slipped him to a seat in the Nafe, who slipped him to a seat in the crowded car. Returning to Munice un-der Nafe's kindly care, the old Dunkard was reunited with his wife and friends.
Last week a letter came to the Coulter House, Chicago, where Nafe made his headquarters, telling him that the old Dunkard couple had willed to him a farm. Investigation showed that they was harless. Shortly after returning were heiriess. Shortly after returning to Amboy the old lady died, and within a week her husband followed her to the grave. The farm is located in county, ohio, and its value is placed
